UECPC Exhibition at UEC

So Much Life through Photography is on display at the Urban Ecology Center from April through June 2019 in the Community Room. We had our opening reception Thursday, April 11th, 2019.

“The long-standing Photo Club at the Urban Ecology Center is a talented and dedicated group of photographers. With this exhibit beginning during Earth Month, in the time of spring wildflowers, breeding herptiles and migrating birds, their photographs of the wildlife in our midst and throughout the year will inspire you.”

“See through photographers’ eyes: native flora, winter ice, migrating birds, and more - and nature from travels afar, too. Maybe you will look more closely, enjoy the outdoors with new eyes and perspectives, celebrate all the life of the Urban Ecology Center, and maybe pick up a camera yourself.”

For the first hour of our next meeting we will participate in the UEC Bike + Bite: A Bike Week Celebration. There will be food trucks, bikes and of course nature. We will be available to help with anyone that would like to learn about photography or would like to go photographing with us.
